

The Legacies of 9/11

11111

War on Terror

- After 9/11 acts of terror were no longer crimes, but acts of war
- United States began their war with Afghanistan on October 7, 2001
 - Afghanistan's government kept some terrorists safe
- We are still fighting groups in Afghanistan

War on Terror

 United States began a war with Iraq in March 2003 Sept 1, 2010 – All US Combat missions in Iraq ended – although 50,000 US troops are still in Iraq

Homeland Security

- The US Government added a new Department after 9/11: The Department of Homeland Security
- Designed to protect the US from other terrorist attacks, accidents, and natural disasters

Continued Threats

- Terrorist attacks continued throughout the world after 9/11
 - 2002 Car bombing: Indonesia
 - 2004 Train bombing: Spain
 - 2005 Bus bombings: London
 - 2006 Train bombing: India
 - 2008 Shootings/bombings: India
- However, many terrorist plots have been foiled before they happened
 Over 20 since 9/11

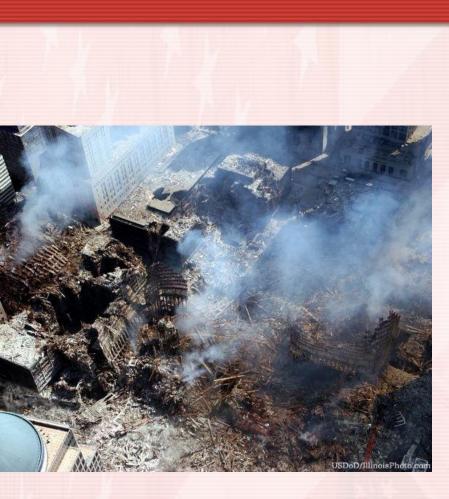

Health Issues

- Because of the collapse of the World Trade Center buildings, many people are currently experiencing health problems
 - Respiratory problems are most common from toxic fumes and dust

Economic Problems

After 9/11, stocks dropped significantly
Lost $1.4 trillion in value in a week
They eventually recovered, but the economy has never been the same since 9/11
